

Change of battery

Safety indications:

The light contains standard batteries. These are not rechargeable.

Recharging the battery can cause an explosion or a leak. This can lead to personal or property damage.

Please pay attention to the imprinted safety instructions.

The battery should not be opened. Never throw the battery or the light into a fire.

The local regulations are to be considered with the disposal.